

McKlein Rally Calendar 2016 – The Wider View

Thick dust on the Rally Portugal, splashing mud on the Wales Rally GB and snow and ice on the Monte Carlo Rally. There is no other motor sports discipline that is as varied and spectacular as the World Rally Championship where World Rally Cars are driven right on the edge. And there is nobody out there who captures the sport as well as McKlein. For their breath-taking XXL wall calendar “McKlein Rally 2016 – The Wider View”, the McKlein photographers have picked their very best pictures to show the beauty of today’s WRC. As the official calendar of the FIA World Rally Championship, it offers a choice between two pictures each month in a 95 cm panoramic format. The only chance to see Sébastien Ogier, Kris Meeke, Thierry Neuville, Elfyn Evans, Robert Kubica and Co. in action in a larger format would be to live on one of the WRC stages. Twenty-five amazing images show just what a Citroën DS3 WRC, Ford Fiesta WRC, Hyundai i20 WRC and VW Polo WRC are capable of on tarmac, gravel, ice and snow.
